Beginning November 12th and running through December 23rd, 2009, the Copley Society of art opens Holiday Small Works in the Upper and Lower Galleries. A public reception will be held at the ColSo galleries, located at 158 Newbury Street in Boston, on Thursday, November 12th from 5:30 to 7:30pm. All members will be admitted free of charge, while non-members are asked to contribute $10 to help support gallery programming.

Holiday Small Works is one of ColSo's most treasured exhibitions, featuring work from our membership of over 400 artists. With over one thousand small, affordably priced paintings, sculptures, photographs, and prints, this annual sale is sure to offer wide-spread appeal. These special pieces are perfect additions to growing art collections and make unique gifts for the holidays.

The Copley Society of art (ColSo), America's oldest non-profit organization, is committed to the advancement, enjoyment, and promotion of its member artists and the visual arts. The organization, founded in 1879, comprises juried artists who are selected by a credentialed art committee. ColSo provides artists with a gallery for exhibiting and selling their work and a platform for engaging and educating the community.
