21st Annual Student Show
February 18th – April 16th, 2010

The Copley Society of art will host its 21st Annual Student Show from February 18th to April 16th, 2010 at the ColSo gallery in Boston. The exhibition features exciting new artworks from four promising young artists. A members' reception ceremony with refreshments will be held on Thursday, February 18th from 5:30 - 7:30pm at the gallery, located at 158 Newbury Street.

The local artists who submitted works for this exhibition were reviewed by two jurors: Karen Quinn, Kristin and Roger Servison Curator of Paintings, Art of the Americas at the MFA and Susan Lanoue of Lanoue Fine Art. Award winners include Patrick Shea of Cornell University, Karl Holzenthal of Lyme Academy College of Fine Arts, and Christian Dyer, also of Lyme Academy College of Fine Arts.

The Copley Society of art (ColSo), America's oldest non-profit organization, is committed to the advancement, enjoyment, and promotion of its member artists and the visual arts. The organization, founded in 1879, comprises juried artists who are selected by a credentialed art committee. ColSo provides artists with a gallery for exhibiting and selling their work and a platform for engaging and educating the community.

The Copley Society of art is located at 158 Newbury Street in Boston. The gallery is open Tuesday-Saturday 11-6, Sunday 12-5, and Monday by appointment. The opening reception is free for members and non-members will be asked to pay $10 to benefit gallery programming.
